ticken Cholera.

Terre Haute, Champaign Co., Ohio, I neverted about ten days ago tive very fine Politch chickens. A few days ago I nesteed that two of them had something like the room and their throads seemed to be rearly stopped up and made a become as not able to walk, or even stand on the feet. I have a small piece of bread, say alsoid half an inch square, and saturated it with st jacols off, and fed it to them, once in the morning and again in the evening. The next norming when I went out to look at them I could not tell which of the live chickens had been sick.
